PREPARATORY SCHOOL

Position Description	Teacher – Preparatory School
Reporting	Supervisor – Deputy Head of the Preparatory School Reporting to – Head of the Preparatory School
Agreement/Award	Independent Schools NSW Teachers (Hybrid model) Multi-Enterprise Agreement 2017

Mission Statement

Trinity provides boys with a thoroughly Christian education in mind, body, and spirit.

The School

Trinity Grammar School's commitment to academic excellence, pastoral care and participation in a breadth of sporting and co-curricular activities, including the creative and performing arts, develops the talents of individual boys in mind, body and spirit. The School offers a wide-ranging curriculum that is delivered by motivated, caring staff accessing exceptional facilities and resources.

Trinity Grammar School adopts an explicitly student-centred approach to learning that prioritises personal growth through challenge and support. Teachers design learning experiences that provide opportunity for students to develop behaviours for purposeful engagement, skills for critical reflection and inquiry, the disposition to embrace challenge and a deepening repertoire of knowledge and understanding applied to authentic problems and relevant questions. Learning design is sensitive to individual differences and embeds individualised programmes for support, extension and acceleration of the curriculum.

The School is committed to a professional learning culture in which all teachers participate. They are supported to set ambitious personal goals for their own classroom practice as well as working collaboratively to achieve strategic, School wide teaching and learning priorities. Trinity teaching staff engage with professional learning that is embedded within the natural rhythms of teaching and learning across the School. Teachers work in stage Professional Learning Teams, applying a disciplined inquiry methodology to interrogate existing teaching and learning practices, research and recommend innovative practices and trial new initiatives.

Overview of the Preparatory School

The Preparatory School, caters for students from Pre-Kindergarten to Year 6, provides a strong foundation to meet the individual needs of students as they begin their school experience. From the first day, they are immersed in the Schools' ethos of Mind, Body, and Spirit which will travel with them as they transition to the Middle and Senior Schools. Experienced and caring staff members facilitate programmes to meet the academic, social, physical, emotional, spiritual and cultural needs of each child.

Purpose of the position

The role of the Trinity teacher is to support students' critical reflection and engagement as they develop knowledge, discipline-specific conceptual understandings as well as the transdisciplinary disposition of life-long learners in a safe and supportive Christian environment. Teachers work collaboratively to implement the Primary Years Programme (PYP) of the International Baccalaureate. This framework promotes an inquiry-based, concept-driven curriculum that support students to develop a variety of transdisciplinary approaches to learning.

Trinity Grammar School teaching staff engage in the continuous improvement of teaching and learning through structured analysis and review, personal practice and collaboration to achieve Stage goals and commitment to the strategic teaching and learning priorities of the School.

The Teacher works collaboratively with the Assistant PYP Co-ordinators and under the guidance of the Director of Curriculum and Early Learning and the Deputy Head of the Preparatory School.

All staff at Trinity are to be positive in support of the School's traditions and Christian ethos and are expected to be flexible, enthusiastic, competent and dynamic team members who consistently model professional behaviour and collaborative engagement within the daily life of the School.

Members of the School community are expected to co-operate with the senior staff, establish and maintain effective relationships with teaching staff, support staff, students and parents and maintain high levels of confidentiality and professionalism at all times.
